

2010 FREEMAN FELLOWSHIP

Eligibility requirements:

- 1) Applicants must be a member of the Society (in any grade) and in good standing at the time of application and award. Membership applications may be submitted with fellowship application.
- 2) Grants are made toward expenses for experiments, observations, and compilations to discover new and accurate data that will be useful in engineering.
- 3) The fellowship also recognizes underwriting fully or in part, some of the loss that may be sustained in the publication of meritorious books, papers, or translations pertaining to hydraulic science and art that might, except for some such assistance, remain mostly inaccessible.
- 4) The grant may be in the form of a prize for the most useful paper relating to the science or art of hydraulic construction.
- 5) Travel grants are available. These are open to members younger than 45 years, in any grade of membership, in recognition of achievement or promise. These are also for the purpose of aiding the candidate to visit engineering works in the United States, or in any other part of the world, where there is good prospect of obtaining information useful to engineers.
- 6) The grant may be for assisting in the translation, or publication in English, of papers or books in foreign languages pertaining to hydraulics.

Applications must include:

- Completed application form.
- Personal essay on why the applicant should receive this fellowship. The essay shall be no more than 500 words and shall highlight why the applicant chose to become a civil engineer, specific ASCE involvement, any special financial needs, and long term goals and plans.
- Detailed financial statement stating the amount of and purposes for which the funds will be used and how they will assist the applicant.
