

Donald L. Schmidt, ARM is CEO of Preparedness, LLC.

Mr. Schmidt has been involved in emergency management for nearly 30 years—in the public sector and the private sector. He has done extensive work in risk assessment, mitigation, emergency response plan development, training, and exercising within a diverse range of industries.

Mr. Schmidt is co-author of Business at Risk: How to Assess, Mitigate and Respond to Terrorist Threats and Tools & Techniques of Risk Management and Insurance. He is a contributing author to the McGraw Hill Homeland Security Handbook and the upcoming 20th Edition of the Fire Protection Handbook. He is also the editor and contributing author of Implementing NFPA 1600. He has authored numerous magazine articles, been interviewed by many publications, appeared on television and radio and lectured on the subject of emergency management.

Mr. Schmidt has held positions with Marsh USA Inc. as risk control manager, operations manager, and National Practice Leader for Emergency Management. He is a member of the International Association of Emergency Managers, a professional member of the American Society of Safety Engineers, and a member of the Society of Fire Protection Engineers. He serves as a principal member on the Technical Committee on Emergency Management and Business Continuity responsible for NFPA 1600 and a principal member of the Technical Committee on Pre-Incident Planning responsible for NFPA 1620.

Mr. Schmidt received his B.S. degree, Summa Cum Laude, in Fire Science from the University of Maryland. He has also attained the Associate in Risk Management (ARM) designation from the Insurance Institute of America.